Find Books
Search the Library catalog (OPAC) online at:
http://www.calstatela.edu/library/opac/catalog.html

Tip: The most efficient way to search the catalog is by subject (Library of Congress subject heading).

Use a Library online catalog to find items and their location. Consider the following subjects:
Try: International Relations and 56 related headings; also; International Relations--Research. Also: International Organization and 16 related headings, including Non-governmental organizations (subdivided by country). Also try: International Economic Relations; International finance; World politics—1989--; Strategic materials – government policy; International economic relations and 10 related subject headings. Also: Globalization.

Browse the stacks: Go to the second floor of Library North and browse the shelves by call number areas. This includes JZ international relations; HD policy sciences; and HF economic systems.
